The Madison Youth Baseball Program is a recreational program open to all children in Madison County. It operates under the Babe Ruth, Inc. guidelines. Evaluations for proper player placement are generally held the first Saturday in March of each year. Teams are drafted the day after, then notified by the coach of their placement within 48 hours thereafter. Generally two practices per week are held prior to the start of games, which begin about 3-4 weeks later, with one practice per week after games start. The games for Minors and Majors are played on Tuesday or Wednesday evening and Saturday afternoon. Rookie games are Friday evenings and Saturday afternoon, and T-Ball games are generally Saturday morning or afternoon. The Jr. Babe team plays in a rotating circuit with surrounding counties, with game schedule determined each spring. Players need to have baseball cleats, and should have a mitt. They are encouraged to have their own bat and helmet, though the League does have some equipment available, as well as catcher's gear for each team.

POST-SEASON ALL STAR TEAMS: All players have an opportunity to be evaluated during the regular season for selection onto the All Star's team in their age group. These are competitive teams that play in the Virginia Babe Ruth District V Tournament with the goal of advancing to the State Tournament and beyond. The All Star season generally begins after Memorial Day, but no later than June 1st. Player evaluation for All Star's teams includes, but is not limited to, ability/skill, attitude, sportsmanship, teamwork skills, listening skills, and ability to be coached. All Star's player selection is conducted at the end of the regular season. The Baseball Board selects the Manager of each All Star team, who then selects his assistant coaches. The team manager and the assistant coaches he chooses (also approved by the Board) selects players for their respective All Star team and presents them to the Board. The Baseball Board approves all final All Star rosters.

The current Commissioner for the Madison Youth Baseball Program is Becky Hurt. The league is governed by a Board of Directors of up to 12 members. More detailed information about the Madison Youth Baseball Program can be found in the Coaches & Managers Handbook.
